TODD MOSBY - JAZZ INDIA

This one of a kind DUO will culturally diversify your season and amaze your audiences!

Blending the unique traditions of American Jazz and Indian raga creating an innovative world music with virtuoso flair, Mosby is one of the few musicians capable of spanning these two oceans of music. Mosby brings the best of both music traditions into a focus both cultures can appreciate. Tunes like Norwegian Wood become a vehicle for showcasing the subtleties of melodic phrasing with the chordal harmonies. Mosby is unique in his understanding and ability to share his insights into this wonderful world of music.

A member of India's most revered Imdhad Khani Gharana of musicians, Mosby is the first and only guitarist in the world to become a carrier of this tradition with the Imrat Guitar. Ustad Imrat Khan, guru-ji to George Harrison and Bryan Jones, was Mosby's teacher and mentor for 13 years. He has been a featured performer for many Classical North Indian music festivals, gatherings and events.
